Attend Performance at Cosmos Theater Under Auspices of the Salvation Army.

A Christmas entertainment for more than 600 poor children of this city unfor the performance many of the children had arrived, and by the time the first film, "Leap Year," had started, the majority of the children were in their seats. There were comedy dramas, a thrilling scene of "The Runaway Sleeper" with Helen Gibson as the star performer, street scenes in China, together with comedy cartoons, shown to the youngsters.

Salvation Army, under the direction Adjt. Fartlett, presented each child of Adit. Fartlett, presented each child with a box of candy, nuts and an orange, while the Cosmos Theater man-agement gave each a Christmas horn. A similar performance under the di-rection of the Salvation Army is to be Monday morning, at the Howard Thea-ter. These children will also receive a gift from the army.
